

Exclusive Tents

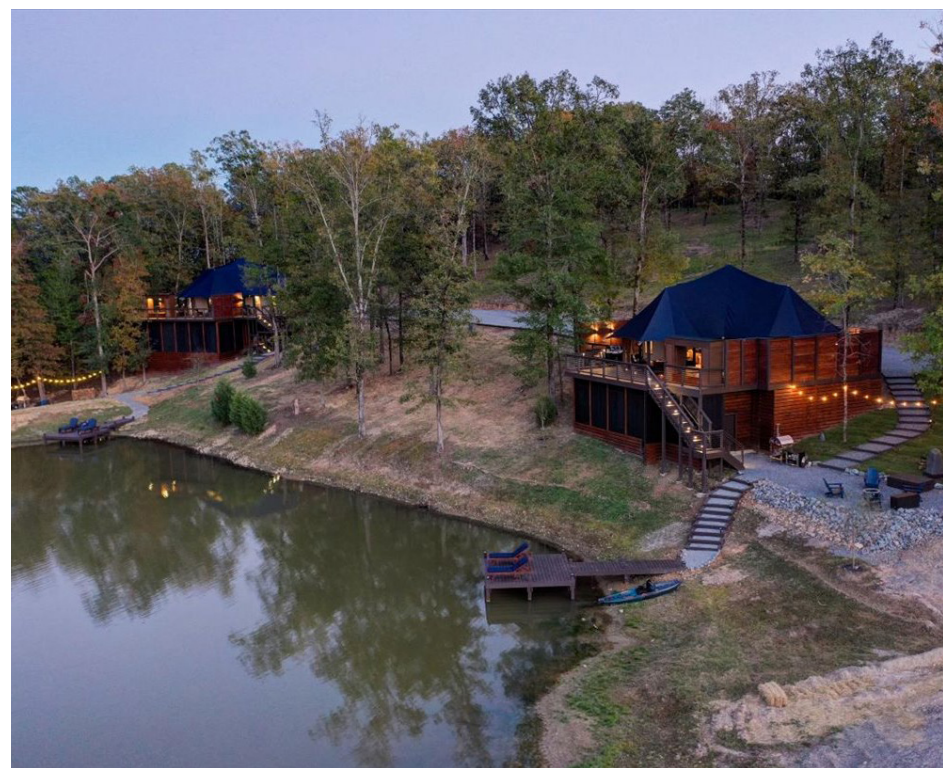

The world is our canvas

Exclusive Tents was founded in 2005, but we have been perfecting our craft since 1984. We are two families that came together to make the most durable and luxurious tents on the market. Every stitch stitched, every piece of canvas cut, and every welded piece of steel is our form of art. To us, these are more than just tents, these are pieces of art crafted from our hands with passion and love. Each tent is so special to us, that we find it difficult to send them off to their new destinations. But as the next set of tents set sail to its new home, whether it be Italy, Australia, New Zealand, Asia, USA, Mexico or wherever, we know we are slowly decorating the earth. With a mission of keeping things eco friendly, with minimal footprint, and integrating nature within our designs, there are an infinite amount of options. With each step forward and every new tent, we are making the world our canvas.

TERME DI VULCI

GLAMPING & SPA

Terme di Vulci has partnered with Exclusive Tents Ltd. to design and develop the most exclusive glamping in Italy. The glamping facility is composed by 10 independent tents (5 Bububu, 3 Phelwane and 2 Shilowa tents) with different features and sizes in order to cater for a wide variety of clients. The larger "suite" tents include private thermal pools. All of the tents include ensuite bathrooms and have been decorated with a natural touch that is strongly aligned with Exclusive Tents vision of "living under canvas". The resort includes a restaurant, thermal pools and a SPA that is currently under construction.

Exclusive Tents have provided an excellent product that marvels all our clients. The character and uniqueness of the resort is strongly related to the living space and experience created by our accommodation. As Glamping is becoming widely popular, many products are available on the market, but few resemble the true essence of glamping. Exclusive Tents has been able to craft a clean, spacious design and is able to assist its clients with a professional approach and great customer care.

Having decided to go for a tented lodge project, Exclusive Tents was the obvious choice for us. As a matter of fact, the only one and just by searching the internet, we could define the well-engineered tents they manufacture, reflecting the true quality on the screen. Working on the order with Angelika, she gave us indispensable advice for the setting up the platform and decking, electricity and tubing and sharing her broad experience and knowledge far beyond the tent itself. She was tuned into to every small request and feature we asked for, making an honest effort to supply us with a product which is durable and great longevity, which was after all, the main concern when it comes to construction in general, and tenting in particular.

I first started working with Paul Zway and Exclusive Tents in 2010 when I purchased a tent to live in on my property in Costa Rica. Years later when searching for a covering for our outdoor restaurant, it was a no brainer to reach back out and collaborate on a new structure. Our patio is not a simple space to cover, but with the help of Paul and his team, we were able to create a beautiful and functional tent covering. His quick responses and helpful input made working with him a breeze. We are very happy with the final product and would recommend working with them without hesitation!

Thank you!

I have personally been checking out glamping tents for years ; from glamping fairs to all the possible we searches. The quality, experience and personalized attention that they provide has made exclusive tents a wise decision and lasting partner for our project

We LOVE our Kambaku tent from Exclusive Tents, we couldn't be more pleased. Initially we were a little hesitant to buy such a large purchase from overseas, but we chose them as they were the best on the market and indeed their product certainly lives up to their reputation. All along the different stages- manufacturing, delivery, assembly and now marketing- the customer service and support we have received has been second to none. Paul's genuine interest and dedication to the project and the people has been clear the whole way along. Thank you Paul and all the team at Exclusive Tents for your beautiful product and the above and beyond service!

I discovered our chef during a visit to Greece a few years ago. His exceptional food deserved an equally special and wonderful environment for our planned Mediterranean restaurant. I decided to place the restaurant in a tent amidst a semi-urban and busy streetscape.

After scouring the internet for weeks, I was fortunate to find Exclusive Tents and I could not be more pleased with this decision. They provided a tent with beautiful aesthetics, luxury, and reliability all at a fair price.

I was thoroughly impressed throughout the entire process. Anders Zway took the lead for us and they did an absolutely fantastic job in design and planning from start to finish. He was instructional and patient. He acted as a perfect liaison between us as the client, his father, Paul, and the team in South Africa.

Our conditions are unique including seismic zone 4 with 8.1 earthquakes and multiple 180 mph super typhoons. Anders engaged an engineer to help us design a tent that can withstand ultra high wind speeds and yet can also be easily broken down in case of a Category 4 or 5 storm

The tent erection went smoothly and the quality exceeded my high expectations.

The guests all “ooh and ahh” at the beauty of the tent. And the workmanship is everything we could hope for.

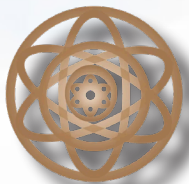

I would not hesitate to recommend Exclusive Tents without reservation.

We recently installed 4 Exclusive Tents in Tepozlan, Morelos Mexico. The entire process was an amazing experience. Not just because of the quality of the tents, and them being the leaders in the world, but the service that we received. From the moment we decided on the tents, until the tents were fully setup, Exclusive Tents solved everything immediately. The service is personalized, and it has been an amazing experience. We are looking forward to the future.

I have to say these guys are the real deal. Bonafide experts in tent construction, manufacturing, shipping and set up. Anders and his team couldn't have been easier or nicer to work with. We were very overwhelmed in the beginning with the thought of undertaking this type project but Anders made us feel that we had a partner with us every step of the way (and this was before we had decided to even place our order)! We look forward to continuing to work with the Exclusive Tent team in the future and to watch our glamping tent project grow and become a must see destination for glamping lovers around the world.

Working with Exclusive Tents was a seamless process. Every time we encountered an issue Anders was with us - he never left us and never made us feel like we were alone to solve the problem. He goes above and beyond his role to ensure we felt like a priority and we could tell that Exclusive Tents was a very unique and very special business filled with employees that truly love what they do and truly want to help customers bring their tents to people that will enjoy them for years and hopefully generations to come. We were thrilled with our experience and excited for the future of Wavefront Exclusive Tents!

Before we began the project, the client and I searched for tents that would blend into and suit the beautiful hilly site which had a natural stream running through it. There were very few suppliers who even came close and in the end, it was Exclusive Tents who was the undisputed choice. We had an excellent experience working with Brian Grisham who made the whole process so much smoother. I would recommend them in a heartbeat!

It is with much delight that I write to recommend the services (both supply and install) of Exclusive Tents and in particular, Paul Zway.

We have worked with Exclusive Tents for the past 10 years, during which time they have been involved in the supply and installation of 10 tents over three separate projects on our Property in Morocco over this period.

Exclusive Tents have always maintained open and effective communication through the design and supply period of each project, and then having them onsite through the install period has always been a pleasure where they do everything they can do to work to our tight timelines and in challenging site conditions.

We would definitely use Exclusive Tents for future projects requiring a tented product and we wouldn't hesitate to recommend using them to anyone else requiring tented solutions.

Warm greetings from Koyao Island Resort, Phang Nga Thailand. We would like to thank you for all your efforts during our process of ordering, select the material, delivery and assistance during the set up. 10 years ago we were thrilled to find ExclusiveTents.com and the Zway family ~ originally our idea was to accommodate family members on vacation however, in the end it turned into a 'Luxury Tent business' for us or in this world a 'Glamping Experience'!

I can only say good things about Exclusive Tents ~ the service and execution of our order from start to finish as well as constant communication no matter how little/ and large and although we've never met always feel I have a great business friend at the end of the email ~

We have two Serengeti Tents which were delivered from Durbin to Marseille, France (2009) and the order rolled out exactly as promised! We built our platforms together and put up the Luxury Tents together and after 10 years they are as glorious as they were the day they arrived and they stay standing all year round without problem!

Should you be interested in a quality product and a family firm that stands behind it ~ this is where you need to be (www.exclusivetents.com) and if you want to see one standing in Francethis is where you need to be www.imaginefrance.fr

Feel free to drop by anytime ~ we are so happy to stand behind a quality product that in 10 years has brought so much pleasure to so many!

Would be very happy to welcome you to Haut Toupian for your vacation as well...

Glamping regards,

Some ten years ago, while designing our 4 Rivers Floating Lodge - which was supposed to float some wooden bungalows - I discovered the beautiful tents of Paul. Majestic, luxurious, easy to install – that was my first feeling, and that made them an obvious choice for 4 Rivers.

Then, I discovered Paul Zway! He is dreaming tents, breathing tents, talking tents. He is loving them so much that you cannot stop listening.

Our relationship started AFTER purchasing the tents for 4 Rivers. When some suppliers are considering the job done when they delivered the goods, Paul and Angelika were always close and listening. Maintenance items and spare parts were always delivered promptly, delivery terms respected, promises never broken in ten years.

So it was all natural when it turned to friendship...

We got to know Exclusive Tents International in 2005 and it was “love at first sight”. Paul Zway and his staff showed high professionalism and seriousness. Their tent designs were unique: no other manufacturer offered such a high-level product with such luxurious finishes. We researched so many different tent options, but no one was at their level. Finally, we chose Exclusive Tents International to develop our first Glamping Canonici site in Italy which this year (2018) celebrated the first 10 years of activity!

Exclusive Tents International has always been on our side to satisfy any of our needs and the super high quality of the product they provided us proved our choice was right: after ten years our tents are still in perfect condition! In north Italy we have frigid temperatures during winter times (also with snow) and high temperatures during summer (sometimes more than 30°C) but with pellet stoves and air conditioning the tents are enjoyable all year long.

The success of our Glamping Canonici, which has obtained honors and awards from all over the world, is based on the luxury design of these tents, the fine detail and constructed with excellent materials which after ten years are still unique in the market.

Our interior decor emphasizes its internal spaces which allows an optimal distribution of the interiors inside the tent.

Exclusive Tents International offers the possibility to choose among a wide variety of models and designs but our choice has been the Kingfisher Tent (40m2) and the Kambaku Tent (50m2), which are perfect to host comfortably from 2 to 6 people.

The collaboration with this company made possible the success of Glamping Canonici in Italy and for sure it will be our reference company for our future projects! Thank you Paul, Angelika, Zane, Anders, Brian and staff!

Owner of Glamping Canonici

In 2010 our project, Sandat Glamping in Bali, Indonesia started, we received so many offers from companies producing luxury tents from all over the world (India, China, Europe, South Africa and Indonesia itself), but in evaluating quality and price comparison we never had any doubt: Exclusive Tents International remained the best!

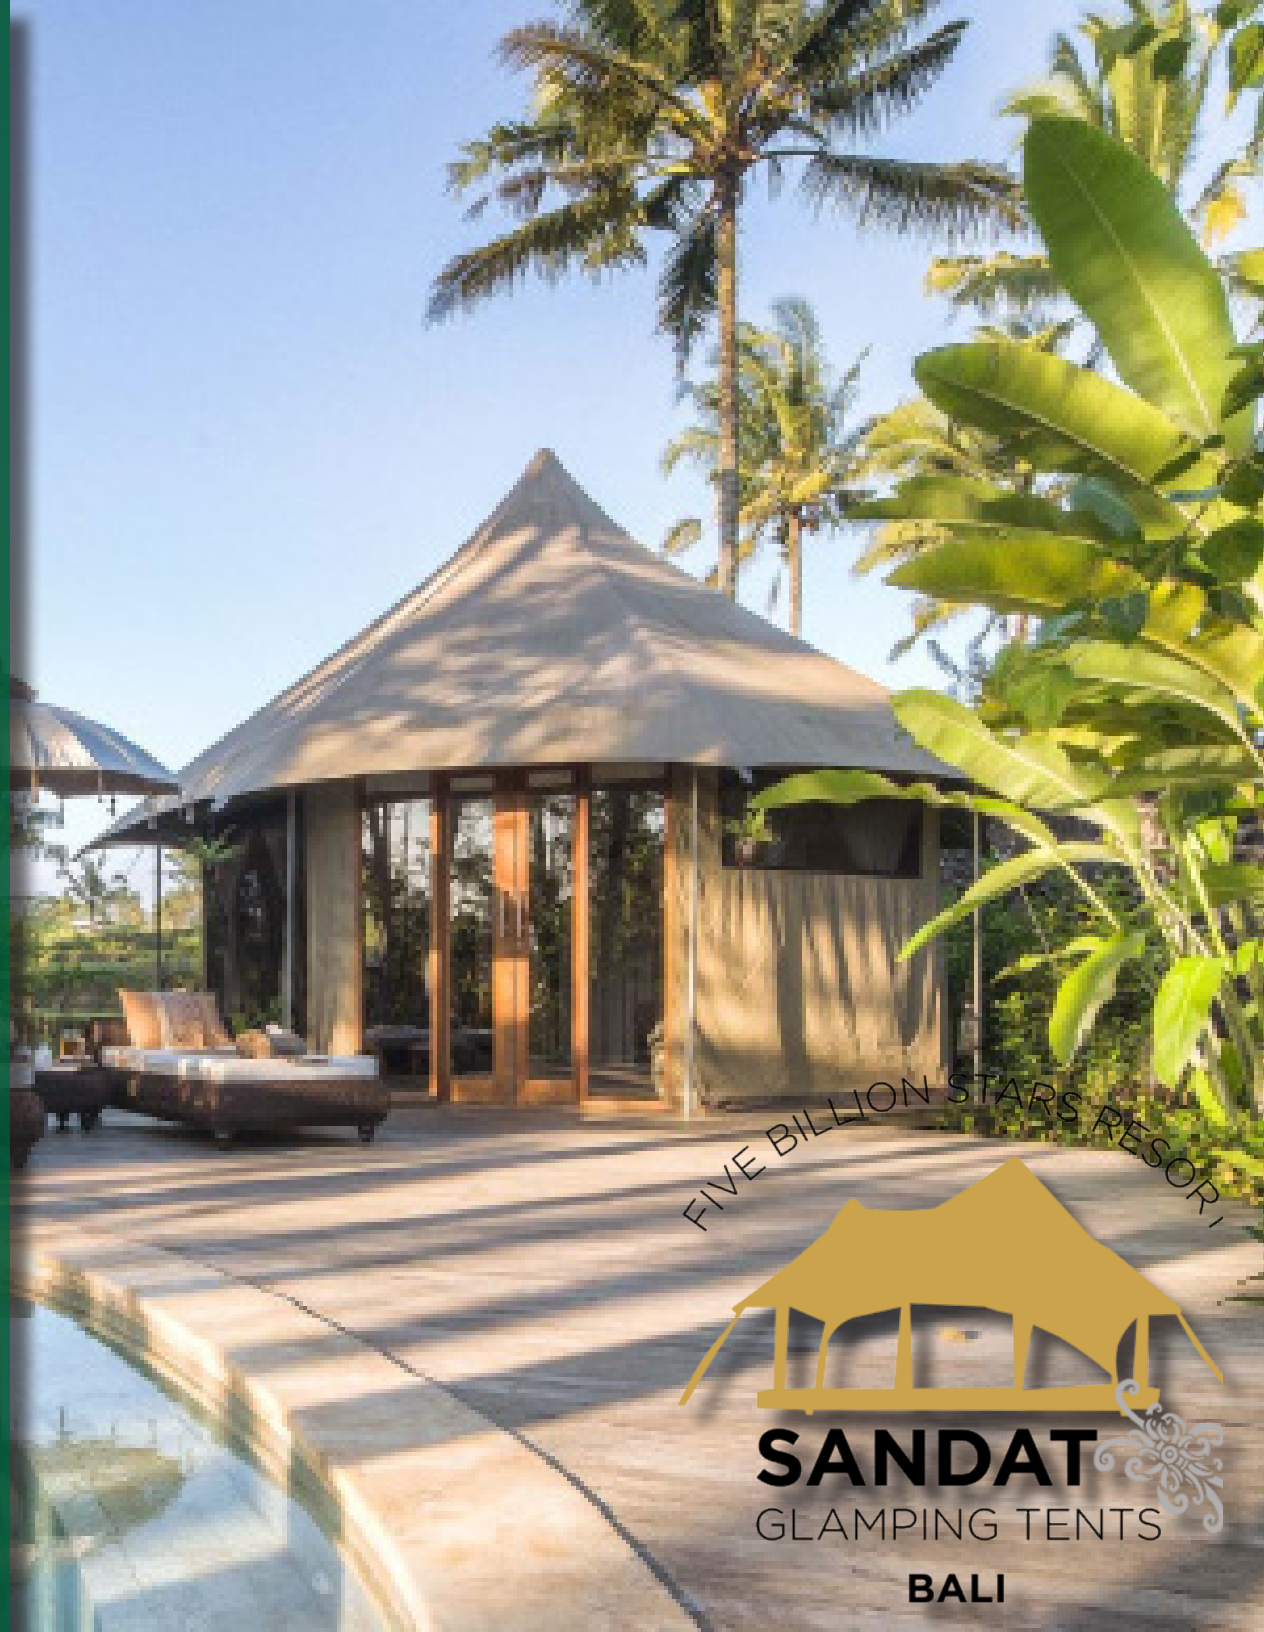

Many companies on the market were not professional and, in some cases, they didn't show any experience in the sector. They applied low rates which corresponded to a poor quality of materials with model designs which reminded us of military tents, not glamorous luxury tents.

Exclusive Tents International, which provided us luxury tents for the development of Glamping Canonici in Italy, remained the best.

Moreover, the relationship built after the opening of Glamping Canonici with Paul Zway, a very nice and professional person, led us to the conclusion that the success of our Glamping Canonici was deeply linked to Exclusive Tents International and its "soul", Paul! This project gave us the possibility, after 5 years of emails and Skype calls, to meet personally with Paul and Angelika, who came to Bali to manage the set-up operations of the tents for Sandat Glamping. We can say that we spent unforgettable days with them who, just like us, they love their job and for this reason they do it with passion and commitment. After many years we can say that the choice of Exclusive Tents International is a guarantee for success!

Onto the next project with Exclusive Tents!

In late 2013 I installed 8 Exclusive Tents in our new lodge in Darien, Panama and we are very happy with the results. I wanted to transmit a sense of adventure and an intimate contact with nature for the guests of our new lodge and that feeling is best achieved through a well built, spacious, comfortable tent. We are beginning our 6th year and the equipment is holding well in a wet, tropical climate.

The after sales service is also very good. Paul Zway, the Krazy African, has provided timely and valuable advice and he is more than a salesman, he is a friend.

It was a pleasure to work with Paul during the process of ordering the 5 tents we needed for our project. It was even more of a pleasure when he arrived to help us set them up. I would consider Paul to be one of our greatest assets now. He is a true professional to work with. He is incredibly detailed in every aspect of the order to make sure everything is exactly right. While he was working with us, he constantly offered unique ideas to help our village become even more amazing. We found the tents to be of the highest quality and strong. Even with the scorching sun and daily ocean mist, after 3 years, they are holding up very well. When we were in the position to expand our operation, we will not hesitate to call on Exclusive Tents again.

I first met Paul and Zane Zway back in 2006 when researching tent options for lodges in Ghana. They were both approachable and highly knowledgeable. So when it came time to start our build for Zaina Lodge in 2013, the first safari lodge built in West Africa, working with Exclusive Tents was the natural choice. We went with 25 custom Serengeti tents for the rooms, 3 walled shells with an open backend that we could affix to our bathroom structures. We chose double walled tents with insulation to handle our air-conditioning for the 40+ degrees Celsius days of the hot season. Later, we added a much larger custom tent for our meeting facility. The tents blend in perfectly with our scenery and setting in Mole National Park. The Exclusive Tents team was responsive and helpful in the order and design process, and getting our tents shipped up to Ghana from South Africa was straightforward. We are happy with the performance of the tents. Later when we needed to get extra Velcro for our custom-designed window and door frames, Zane was able to get us what we needed quickly and efficiently. It has been a pleasure to watch them grow and see their tents showing up in properties across the globe since I first met them in 2006. We are proud to have been part of that story, and to have partnered with Exclusive Tents to create an icon for West African lodge design in Zaina Lodge in Ghana.

As the builder and operator of the very first high-end tented resort of China, we have been looking for good tent supplier all over the world. We bought tents from Exclusive Tents in 2016. It has been a wonderful experience working with Paul. He is professional, experienced, friendly, and supportive in many aspects. He visited us in China in 2017, and we had a wonderful time together at the camp site. The products we bought from Exclusive Tents are very well designed, especially the details, we would like to highly recommend Exclusive Tents. Paul has the excellent skills and knowledge, and I am sure you will become good friend with him.
